SARAH CHURGIN TO SPEAK AT APPRAISERS ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA'S 2008 NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Lambertville, NJ - Sarah Churgin, jewelry and silver specialist at Rago's, will appear at the Appraisers Association of America's 2008 National Conference: Changing Times: Changing Markets. Ms. Churgin has been invited to speak on "Gems and Jewelry" on Sunday, November 9.

Sarah Churgin is an expert in fine and antique jewelry, silver and accessories. A longtime dealer with wide-ranging knowledge in her field, Ms. Churgin began buying and selling at flea market in her teens. She currently maintains a shop in Harding, NJ and four satellites locations and has been with Rago's since 2001. As specialist-in-charge at Rago's, Ms. Churgin is responsible for millions in sales through her annual auction, where she has set records in a number of categories. She is currently accepting consignments of both jewelry and silver for her December 7, 2008 sale.

About Rago Arts and Auction Center

The Rago Arts and Auction Center was established in 1995 by David Rago, a leading expert and dealer in American art pottery who entered the business of auctions in 1984. The Auction Center, located midway between Philadelphia and New York, holds multi-million dollar sales of 20th century decorative arts and furnishings, fine art, jewelry, tribal and estate property. Rago's achieved sales of over $30 million in the 2007-2008 season. It holds an average of twelve sales each year.
